Notice to each defendant

1. You are being sued. This is a summons in a lawsuit. The complaint attached states the claims the plaintiff is making against you.
2. To receive further notices, you or your attorney must file an Appearance (form JD-CL-12) with the clerk at the address above. Generally, it must be filed on or before the second day after the Return Date. The Return Date is not a hearing date. You do not have to come to court on the Return Date unless you receive a separate notice telling you to appear.
3. If you or your attorney do not file an Appearance on time, a default judgment may be entered against you. You can get an Appearance form at the court address above, or on-line at <https://jud.ct.gov/webforms/>.
4. If you believe that you have insurance that may cover the claim being made against you in this lawsuit, you should immediately contact your insurance representative. Other actions you may take are described in the Connecticut Practice Book, which may be found in a superior court law library or on-line at <https://www.jud.ct.gov/pb.htm>.
5. If you have questions about the summons and complaint, you should talk to an attorney.

The court staff is not allowed to give advice on legal matters.

Instructions

1. Type or print legibly. If you are a self-represented party, this summons must be signed by a clerk of the court.
2. If there is more than one defendant, make a copy of the summons for each additional defendant. Each defendant must receive a copy of this summons. Each copy of the summons must show who signed the summons and when it was signed. If there are more than two plaintiffs or more than four defendants, complete the Civil Summons Continuation of Parties (form JD-CV-2) and attach it to the original and all copies of the summons.
3. Attach the summons to the complaint, and attach a copy of the summons to each copy of the complaint. Include a copy of the Civil Summons Continuation of Parties form, if applicable.
4. After service has been made by a proper officer, file the original papers and the officer's return of service with the clerk of the court.
5. Use this summons for the case type codes shown below.

Do not use this summons for the following actions:

COMPLAINT

FIRST COUNT – Breach of Contract

1. The Plaintiff, DiMauro Oil Co., LLC (hereinafter "DiMauro" or "Plaintiff"), is a limited liability company authorized to transact business in the State of Connecticut with a place of business in Portland, Connecticut.

2. The Defendant, Andrew Simonow (hereinafter "Simonow" or "Defendant"), is an individual residing in East Hampton, Connecticut.

3. By contracts dated on or about November and December 2022, the Defendant, Simonow, entered into an agreement with DiMauro whereby, inter alia, DiMauro agreed to furnish the Defendant with home heating oil, and the Defendant agreed to pay the reasonable price thereof as reflected on the invoices and statements issued by DiMauro (hereinafter the "Contracts"). Pursuant to Practice Book § 10-29, a copy of the Contracts will be filed as Exhibit A, and a copy of such exhibit will be served on appearing parties within ten (10) days after receipt of notice of their appearance.

4. On or about November 2022, and continuing through on or about May 2026, the Plaintiff delivered to the Defendant home heating oil.

5. Although the Plaintiff has delivered said oil to the satisfaction of the Defendant, the Defendant has refused and/or failed to pay for said oil as agreed.

6. Demand for payment of all sums due has been made upon the Defendant, but he has wrongfully failed and refused to make payment as agreed.

7. As of this date there is due and owing to the Plaintiff from the Defendant an account balance of $10,687.73.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, DiMauro Oil Co., LLC, demands:

1. Money damages;
2. Interest as allowed under the Contracts, or alternatively pursuant to C.G.S. § 37-3a;
3. A prejudgment attachment/garnishment;
4. Costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees as provided by the Contracts; and
